"Otis" Underwear for Men

There is no stint to the names and variety of men's underwear now on the market, but the men who are best posted in the trade will tell you that out of the whole chaotic number of names and claims clamoring for excellence, and a very, very few possess any individual merit, and out of this little list of not more than half a dozen, "Otis" stands out as the one name that has never been excelled in the history of Men's Underwear making in America.

Underwear for Spring

Of light or medium weight. See our beautiful new gossamer wool goods in natural shades and note carefully the excellence of this finish.

For Those Who Cannot

Wear woolen weaves, we suggest Sea Island Cotton, two thread weight, with tailor-made seams, ribbed skirts, and the new style silk trimmings. An intelligent examination at this time, will tell you why we sell more Men's Underwear every year than all the furnishing stores in the city.

M. J. Lovgren, of Pittston avenue, is confined to his home with an attack of rheumatism.

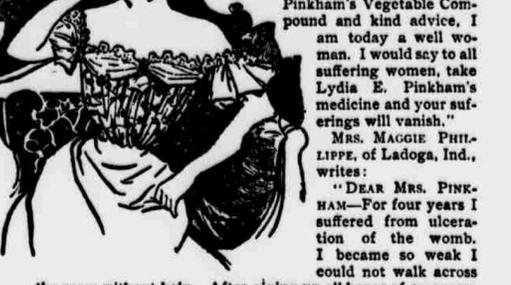

PERFECT womanhood depends on perfect health.

Nature's rarest gifts of physical beauty vanish before pain. Sweet dispositions turn morbid and fretful. The possessions that win good husbands and keep their love should be guarded by women every moment of their lives. The greatest menace to woman's permanent happiness in life is the suffering that comes from derangement of the feminine organs.

Many thousands of women have realized this too late to save their beauty, barely in time to save their lives. Many other thousands have availed of the generous invitation of Mrs. Pinkham to counsel all suffering women free of charge.

Mrs. H. J. GARRETSON, Bound Brook, N. J., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with the best results and can say from my heart that your medicines are wonderful. My physician called my trouble chronic inflammation of the left ovary. For years I suffered very much, but thanks to Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and kind advice, I am today a well woman. I would say to all suffering women, take Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine and your sufferings will vanish."

MRS. MAGGIE PHILLIPS, of Ladoga, Ind., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—For four years I suffered from ulceration of the womb. I became so weak I could not walk across the room without help. After giving up all hopes of recovery, I was advised to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and wrote for special information. I began to improve from the first bottle, and am now fully restored to health."

examined the pupils of No. 27 and Prof. Hawker of No. 31 did the work at No. 28.

The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered at the Capouse Mission chapel tomorrow. At the morning service Rev. L. R. Foster will officiate.

The Green Ridge Dancing class met at the home of Mrs. Ernest J. Parrot, of Madison avenue, yesterday afternoon.

The Green Ridge Telephone exchange will receive calls in their new quarters about April 1.

John T. Miller, of Easton, Pa., called on Green Ridge business men yesterday.

The membership of Green Ridge camp, No. 25, Patriotic Order Sons of America, is increasing rapidly. Eighteen candidates have been initiated within the past six weeks and new propositions are coming in each meeting night. Sunday evening, March 11, the members will meet at Masonic hall, Dickson avenue, and attend divine service in full regalia at Green Ridge Baptist church, on Monsey avenue.

NORTH SCRANTON.

Last evening Casswallon J. Davis, of Trenton, N. J., delightfully entertained a large audience at the Welsh Congregational church with his impersonation of Mr. P. F. B. and kept the audience in continual laughter. During the evening John T. Evans and Joshua Johns sang tenor solos in a pleasing manner and were well received.

Rev. James Hughes gave an interesting address in the Providence Presbyterian church last evening on "The War in South Africa."

Mrs. O. D. Myers has returned from Jersey, where she has been visiting friends.

Mrs. John A. Evans, of Parker street, is ill.

Henry Jones, of Wayne avenue, is suffering with the grip.

Daniel Jenkins, of Oak street, is suffering with rheumatism.

Rev. William Edgar will preach at both services at the Providence Methodist Episcopal church. Services at 10 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Sunday school at 2 o'clock.

At the Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow, Rev. A. J. Van Cleft will preach and preach at the morning and evening service. Sunday school will be held at 2.30 o'clock p. m. and class meeting as usual.

Rev. J. L. Kreamer, pastor of the Dudley Street Baptist church, will preach at 10.30 and 7.30 tomorrow morning and evening. The morning subject will be "Help from the Hills," evening subject will be, "Recognition in Heaven." The Ladies of the Golden Eagle will attend the evening service.

The services at St. Mark's Episcopal church will be in charge of the acting priest, Rev. E. Houghton, tomorrow. The thorough treasurer, August Washburn, will pay school orders this afternoon at the borough building.

Last night the services at St. Mark's Episcopal church were conducted by Rev. F. S. Ballentine. The reverend gentleman also spoke on the subject, "The Sacrifice of Righteousness."

The school board will attempt to have a quorum at an adjourned meeting to be held in the central building Tuesday night.

Edward Hughes, formerly mine foreman in Johnson's mines, has accepted the position made vacant in Spencer's mines by the resignation of P. F. Mangano.

THE CARL SEILER COMPANY.

It Was Chartered at Dover, Del., on Wednesday.

YOUNG THIEF ARRESTED.

Fifteen-Year-Old Boy Burglarizes Residence of Mr. Marks.

The residence of Mr. Marks, of East Market street, was yesterday afternoon burglarized in a most calm and systematic manner. It is alleged, by a young 15-year-old boy, one Charles Fishburn, of Philadelphia, who was captured last night in Wilkes-Barre by the police.

It seems that yesterday Fishburn, who lives in Philadelphia, and was formerly acquainted with the Marks family, paid them a visit and then, when unnoticed, quietly slipped upstairs, where he took everything in sight and the Marks family rapidly exited. Among the articles which he took with him were two ladies' gold watches, one gentleman's gold watch, one gentleman's and lady's silver watches, two necklaces, one gold ring, one watch chain, one silver pencil and a pocketbook containing $1.35.

The police were immediately notified and, making a correct supposition that the thief had gone to Pittston, Wilkes-Barre or some other town in the vicinity, the police of those towns were immediately notified of the occurrence, with the result that the boy was arrested last night on one of the Wilkes-Barre streets with most of the stolen articles in his possession.

While Coupling Cars in the Taylor Yards.

William Campbell, of Mulberry street, employed as a brakeman on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, was badly injured in the Taylor yard yesterday afternoon while engaged in uncoupling cars.

After disconnecting the train he fell on the rails and one of the car wheels passed over his leg. His wrist was also dislocated and one of his feet was crushed. The injured man was brought to the Lackawanna station in a ambulance and the Moses Taylor hospital ambulance was summoned and conveyed him to that institution.

Campbell is a young man and displaying unusual nerve under such trying circumstances.

OBITUARY.

John D. Lloyd, a well known resident of Olyphant, passed away at his home in that town yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock. Deceased had been ill for several weeks, but had apparently recovered, when about two weeks ago he contracted pneumonia, which was the cause of his death. He was 49 years old and was the eldest son of John Lloyd, who was proprietor of the Lackawanna house at Olyphant. Deceased was proprietor of a hotel in Olyphant for a number of years, and later was engaged in the cigar business in Scranton. Besides his father he is survived by three brothers, Thomas, of Olyphant, Samuel, of South Gibson, and William, of Providence, and one sister, Mrs. George Patton, of Olyphant. The funeral announcements will be made later.

Mrs. Mary A. Parrish, widow of the late Archibald Parrish, died yesterday afternoon at her residence, Mrs. Herbert T. Wilkins, of 1104 Green Ridge street. She is survived by three children, Mrs. Frank E. Tiffany, of Nicholson, Pa.; Mrs. Walter F. Keefe, of Syracuse, N. Y.; and Mrs. Frank D. Parrish, of New York city. The funeral will take place Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be made at Wilkes-Barre.

Word reached this city yesterday of the death of Reese Lloyd, formerly of North Scranton, but now of Utah. Mr. Lloyd was the son of Mrs. Jane Jenkins, of Spring street, and was well and favorably known by a large circle of friends who will be glad to learn of his death. Mr. Lloyd survived by a wife, six children, his mother and one sister. His remains will be interred in Utah.

Carrie F. Stipp, wife of Louis Stipp, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raffert, of Mulberry street, died on Thursday, aged 23 years and 3 months. She is survived by her husband and one child. The funeral will be held from the family residence at the rear of 513 Harrison avenue on Sunday afternoon. Interment in Dunmore cemetery.

Glady, the 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis of Furnace Row, died at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, after a brief illness. The funeral will be privately conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Henry Weideman, of Wallsville, died on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Funeral at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

MAKE UP OF COMMITTEES.

Will Be Announced by Chairman Jayne Monday Night.

B. T. Jayne, the newly elected president of the school board, has decided upon the make-up of the various committees of that body for the coming year, and will announce the names of the members of the new bodies at a next Monday evening's meeting of the board.

It can be definitely and authentically stated that the chairmanships of the various committees will be divided as follows: High and Training school, D. L. Phillips; teachers, Louis Schwass; buildings, D. J. Kocher; finances, A. B. Eynon; supply, Elias E. Evans; text books, George E. Shires; insurance, Peter Neuls; kindergarten, W. A. May; rules, O. B. Schriever.

It will be seen from the above that the members of the ruling faculty secure the chairmanships of all the important committees, though it must be admitted that Mr. Jayne is not quite so severe in dealing with the members of the minority as was Mr. Davis, who when he was elected chairman last year did not give the opposition the chairmanships of a secretary committee, Mr. Jayne has appointed two of his opponents to chairmanships, Messrs. May and Schriever, though the committees they are appointed to have very little business coming before them, the committee on rules existing merely in name only.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune does not assume responsibility for opinions here expressed.]

Mr. Bradish's Statement.

Editor of The Scranton Tribune— Sir: I wish to correct the impression given by the published reports of my arrest by saying that my arrest was only an attempt. As the case was not called for lack of evidence and the statement that we were living together under the same roof and that the prosecutrix, Emma Bradish, had, or ever has had, any reason for fear in my presence is absolutely false, and not being on Spruce street, and have several blocks to walk to join my brother with whom I am working.

On the evening of the trouble I had called to see my brother on business, and after a few moments talk with him (in the presence of Mrs. Bradish) I was about to leave their room when Mrs. Bradish attempted to close the door on my heels, as she had done several times before. To prevent this I stepped short in the doorway, the door striking my heels and her head coming in contact with the door, produced the injury, a small black and blue spot, which she hastily exhibited to the alderman of the Ninth ward, as proof of my assault.

Being taken before the magistrate the lady was requested to show her injury and was then sworn. I was allowed a few words in return, which the alderman at once told he did not believe, following immediately with his decision that I was to enter $500 bond or go to street, which I would furnish no bail, but would take the consequences. I was handed a paper on which the charge for my confinement was left blank and was taken up to the station and confined in a cell, freshly painted, amid a large number of paint pots. Amid the smell of paint, the oppressive heat and the constant rattling like bang bang of the steam pipes, I never passed so terrible a night in my life.

At about 2 o'clock the next afternoon the constable took me out, pretending that he intended to take me up to the county jail, where, he said, I would be confined for several months, but, instead, he brought me back to the office of Alderman Kason. After a few moments of quiet and friendly talk the prosecutors decided to withdraw the charges. — J. A. Bradish, Scranton, Pa., March 9, 1900.
